

Historic Argyle
Announces LaFollette Days
June 16-17, 2017
Saxton House Grounds
204 N. State St., Argyle WI

Program

Friday June 16

4pm

Jim Leary. Jim is a public folklorist from Rice Lake WI whose traditional songs and stories reveal the customary practices and handwork of indigenous and immigrant peoples in America's Upper Midwest.

Jim's appearance is sponsored by the Argyle Public Library and the Wisconsin Humanities Council.

5-7pm

Open Jam Session. Welcoming all musicians!

Event includes beverage stand and snacks.

Saturday June 17

8am-noon at Phillipson Lot:

Open Market featuring music by Moo Grass.

noon-5pm at Saxton House

Live Sculpting of LaFollette Bust. Watch as artists Ash Kyrie and Bruce Howdle bring the sculpture to life!

Art Show and Demonstrations

Watercolor painting, pottery, needle felting, candle dipping, spinning/weaving, wood carving, more!

Music by Fever River String Band

Silent Auction

Saxton House Tours

Lunch and Beverage Stand

Call For Musicians and Artists . We invite you to participate in the Open Jam Session (Friday) or the Art Show Demonstration and Sale (Saturday). For more information, call 608-642-2537 or email info@historicargyle.org

Over